Modernistic Club News

The East and West Bound Sunday School Union met at Galilee Baptist Church Sunday in their annual setting. The meeting was well attended and was one of the best meetings held in a long time. A very high day was held. The program for the day was quite informative. President R. Q. Lawing was in charge.

After the morning program the annual sermon was delivered by the Rev. C. L. Elliott. Scripture lesson Luke 12:30-31. Theme - "Find Your Security in Gods Word." The message was very informative. All who heard were benefited. All Sunday Schools in the union were present, with the exception of Chestnut Grove.

The Youth Program was carried out in a very splendid manner, and all present enjoyed the activities very much.

Excellent music was furnished by the Canaan Junior Choir, under the director of Mesdames Ora McCoy, and Mary Hudson. The lovely music for the union service was enjoyed.

At the close of the session a very delicious dinner was served to the visitors, by Galilee Baptist Sunday School, under the direction of Mesdames Eva Allen, Leatha Moss, and Bessie Watson.

Everyone enjoyed the day very much at Galilee Baptist Church. The next union meeting will be held at Chestnut Grove Baptist Church, the first fifth Sunday after February 1974. The total sum of money raised during the meeting was one hundred twenty one dollars and ninety-six cents. (121.96).

The AKA's are sponsoring a Variety Show at Dunbar High School, November 5th, 1973 at 8:00 p.m., an "Akarama" Theme - "Something for Every one." General admission tickets (2.50) two dollars and fifty cents. Patron tickets 3.50. Those who wish to attend this fine program get in touch with Ms. E. H. Jordan. A one act play will be presented along with the other activities. Ms. Jordan will be in charge of a number of the activities. Local talent from Appomattox, Va. will participate on the program. Please contact Ms. Jordan this week for patron tickets.

In and out of town: Ms. Joann Bell of Lynchburg, Va. and Ms. Vera Preston of Washington, D. C. visited their parents Mr. and Ms. Percy Bell and grandmother, Ms. Nannie Wright over the weekend.

Misses Rachel Pankey, and Odessa Pankey of Mt. Vernon, N. Y. were guest at their home in the Springfield neighborhood. They are the daughters of Ms. Bertha Pankey.

Mr. Leon Turner, the brother and cousin from Philadelphia, Pa. of Mr. Benny Tyler are visiting their relatives, Mr. and Ms. William Burnette Turner, and the Tylers of Spout Spring, Va. this week.

Rev. James Carter, pastor of Zion BAptist Church, Pamplin, Va. attended the East and West Bound Union held at Galilee Baptist Church Sunday, Sept. 30th.

We have just received the sad news that Ms. Ethel Dandridge of Lynchburg, Va., passed suddenly around 5:00 p.m. Monday in Lynchburg, Virginia at her home. She was found dead by a close friend. Funeral arrangements are incomplete at this writing. Ms. Dandridge was a former school teacher in Campbell County, her native home, she was a supervisor of Spottsylvania Co. for a number of years and later taught school in Fredericksburg, Va., where she made her home. She returned to Lynchburg, Va. several years ago due to ill health where she lived until death. Ms. Dandridge was a member of Eighth Street Baptist Church, Lynchburg, Va. We regret the passing of the late Ms. Dandridge very much.

Ms. Bettie Davidson of Washington, D. C. is vacationing at her home in Lynchburg, Va. Misses David son and the Stevens sisters had dinner at the S & W Restaurant Monday evening. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

Misses Stevens, H. B. and H. N., visited a short period with Ms. Maude Goff inLynchburg, Va., Monday.

See you next week!!!
